

Today, the 5th June is the second day of Shavuot/Pentecost which is celebrated by all countries outside Israel. It's the season when the wheat harvest is brought in, signifying the great endtime harvest of souls from the nations of the earth. It's a time when the God of Heaven had an appointment to interact with His people in the earth and impart to them what was needed to equip them for the next season in His unfolding plan; a time when He marked them as His own set-apart possession, bearers of His Word and of His Spirit and poured out as harvesters to bless the nations of the earth! May you receive a fresh download of power and revelation in these days and may you receive clarity as to your part in this great harvest season.

As I was in worship today, I saw a golden bowl with a spout and had the sense that something was about to be poured out. Then some kind of whirlwind from heaven formed and silver dollar seeds (like the ones pictured on the left) were released in a stream from Heaven to earth on the wind.

I said 'what are these?' and the Lord said, "dog-tags for my army – identity discs for their day of release." . and then I saw a hand with many keys and He spun around and flung the keys like arrows all across the earth.

It looked almost as if He was throwing a discus and I knew these keys were His army with the names and identities He had given them. They came like pure silver currency fresh from the refiner's fire. He was releasing His refined and ready army as keys that would open doors in the places to which He had flung them.

He was sending them as His heavenly currency, silver dollars, to engage in interactions and transactions in the earth realm to unlock doors that had been locked because of bureaucratic red tape in the spiritual realm over places. I saw where the enemy had been keeping things held up with legal wrangling, these people would walk in and operate with the authority of Heaven and overwrite what his people had allowed to be written into contracts by the enemy, through lack of understanding of Heaven's purpose in the matter. Files would be closed and matters speedily resolved and doors unlocked.

These people would be keys that would cause situations to turn towards Heaven's purpose and God's will seemingly effortlessly. It was as if these keys were oiled so there was no friction when they came into contact with the locks. The Hand of God so moved them that doors sprung open suddenly. And behind them were startled faces of those locked up, who had lost all expectation of release!

Then I heard the word 'turnkey' which means something 'fully equipped; ready to go into operation' and had the sense that not only were these people who received army dog-tags and names and identities, TURN-KEYS, but those whom were set free suddenly by the turning of these keys would also be fully equipped and immediately ready to go into operation as part of God's kingdom plan.

So the words for this Pentecost are: RELEASE, RETURN and REVEAL!

RELEASE of names, assignments, destinations and power to reach them.

RETURN of prisoners, positions, place and purpose in the next phase of God's unfolding plan.

REVELATION of what and who has been held back behind closed doors until this appointed season!

Be blessed!

Christine
